Jaye Calhoun, is a partner in the New Orleans office of Kean Miller and provides clients with full-service tax representation covering federal, state, and local tax challenges and business opportunities. She has more than 30 years of experience assisting clients with tax compliance and planning, the use of tax and business incentives, and tax audits and controversies. Jaye represents multistate and global clients on federal, state, and local taxation, business planning and formation, credits and incentives, and federal, state, and local tax collection matters. She regularly represents clients in audits and administrative and judicial appeals before the IRS, the State of Louisiana Department of Revenue, and numerous local taxing authorities. Jaye is board certified by the Louisiana Board of Legal Specialization in both Taxation and in Estate Planning.

Jaye is a former council director and former chair of the American Bar Association Tax Section State and Local Tax Committee, a former chair of the Tax Section of the Louisiana State Bar Association, and the National Association of State Bar Tax Sections. She was also elected as a Fellow of the American College of Tax Counsel (ACTC) and recently appointed to the board of that organization as a regent. As an ACTC member, she is active in that prestigious organization's amicus committee which files briefs in important tax cases around the country.

Jaye is frequently quoted in tax publications, has a long list of tax publications and is a co-author of both the Bloomberg Corporate Income Tax Navigator, Louisiana, and the Bloomberg Pass-Through Entities Navigator, Louisiana, and Bloomberg's new release: State Corporate Income Tax – Basic Principles (for which she and her co-authors were awarded the Bloomberg Tax Author of the Year Award – 2023).

She is an Adjunct Professor of Law at Tulane University Law School, Loyola University New Orleans College of Law, and, previously, the Northeastern University D'Amore-McKim School of Business in Boston (online program) and serves on Georgetown Law's SALT Institute Advisory Board and the Bloomberg Tax SALT Advisory Board. Further, she is recognized by Chambers and has been listed for many years in Louisiana Super Lawyers and Best Lawyers in America, is AV-rated preeminent by Martindale-Hubble, and has been recognized in 1999 as a YWCA Role Model and by

New Orleans City Business as a 2005 Woman of the Year and as a 2014 recipient of a Leadership in Law award.
