

Peter is a partner with PwC's Products & Services group servicing clients in New York & Nashville. He has over 18 years of experience with PwC.

Peter has a wide range of experience assisting clients with corporate tax planning, compliance and reporting services with a strong focus on accounting for income taxes for dynamic multinational companies, including business combinations, uncertain tax positions, separate company reporting, and spin-offs. He also works extensively with public and privately held companies as part of financial statement audits.

Experience includes advising prominent U.S. based international companies and foreign companies listed on U.S. stock exchanges on effective tax rate management and planning, tax process and internal controls documentation and complex tax provision calculations.

Peter received his Bachelors of Science in Accounting and a Master's of Accountancy from the University of Tennessee. He is also a Tennessee, Georgia and New York Certified Public Accountant and member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.