Securing Coverage: Procedural Considerations

Underwriting

Step 1	Initial consultation with broker's tax specialists to discuss the tax risk.
Step 2	The broker will analyze the information and prepare a report for insurers, allowing marketing of the risk to all potential insurers.
Step 3	The broker receives non-binding indicative terms from insurers and provides the client with a comprehensive report, including a recommended insurer.
Step 4	The client selects an insurer and executes an expense agreement.
Step 5	The insurer reviews all the information made available to it as part of the underwriting process.
Step 6	Parties negotiate policy wording.
Step 7	The final binder/policy is issued.

- What do underwriters really consider?
- How important are the opinions from insureds advisors?

Key Policy Terms

Duration – 7 years, but can go out to 10 years in certain circumstances

Limits – As low as USD ~$5MM up to limits greater than USD $1B

Costs – One time payment of ~3% to 5% of the policy limit

Loss – Loss under the policy can include additional taxes, interest, penalties, contest costs, gross-up

Retention – As low as USD $150,000, and, with “binary risks” (i.e. no loss or total loss), may apply only to contest costs

Tax Jurisdictions – United States, Canada and many other foreign jurisdictions

Standard Exclusions – Inconsistent position, material inaccuracy, settlement without consent, change in law

Contests – Contests are led by the insured and their advisors; The insured has an obligation under the policy to keep insurers informed

Counsel – Deal/opinion counsel are pre-approved in policy; other advisors are subject to the insurers’ reasonable consent

Timing – Underwriting is generally 2 weeks (but has been done in as little as 48 hours)

Policy – Tailored Policy is negotiated to address specific insured risk

Advice – A formal legal opinion is not required; however, the better the advice, the better the terms
