

Don Griswold Bio

June 2021

Don Griswold has been a nationally respected state tax counselor, risk mitigator, advocate, and thought leader for decades. He has served as lead nationwide state tax advisor (external or in-house) to some of the country's largest and most sophisticated businesses, as national partner-in-charge of State Tax Technical Services at a Big 4 accounting firm, as a frequent author and conference panelist, and as adjunct professor of law at Georgetown University Law Center. He is currently in private practice.
