

Dana Taylor has served as Appeals Administrator for the South Carolina Department of Revenue since 2019. Dana and the Appeals team substantively review, and work to resolve, disputed issues involving any tax type administered by the Department.

Among other things, at SCDOR, Dana has managed the Department's Nexus and Discovery Section and its Foreign Corporate Audit Group. She has served as an expert witness on technical tax issues, audit methodology and statutory interpretation. Dana's favorite area of professional interest surrounds the ever-evolving world of multi-state corporate income tax.

Prior to joining the Department in 2008, Dana began her career in public accounting auditing financial statements for the telecom, construction, and captive insurance industries.

Dana is a graduate of the University of South Carolina Honors College, receiving her B.S. in Accounting in 2005 (summa cum laude), and her Master of Accountancy with a specialization in Taxation in 2006. She is a Certified Public Accountant and an adjunct professor of Cost Accounting and Financial Statement Auditing.

When not in the office, Dana enjoys outdoor adventures and nerf wars with her two sons, Noah (11) and Eli (9).
