Background

Jeremy Gove works with clients through various stages of multistate tax planning and structuring, state and local tax (SALT) controversy and litigation, and policy matters. Jeremy's practice involves resolving controversies throughout the litigation process, including trial and appeals. His experience includes counseling clients on a variety of multistate taxation issues, including corporate income, franchise, gross receipts, and sales and use taxes. He hosts the SALT team's SALT Shaker Podcast, which explores SALT trends and updates.

Prior to joining Eversheds Sutherland, Jeremy worked for a global law firm where he represented clients in income, franchise, gross receipts, and sales & use tax controversy matters throughout the country at the administrative and judicial level.
