

Lynn E. Hall

A national leader in the Unclaimed Property field, Lynn has been involved in the Unclaimed Property arena for over 34 years.

Her career in Unclaimed Property began in 1989 with the State of Maryland Comptroller's Office as Assistant Manager, then Manager before taking on the role as Assistant Director of the Compliance Division overseeing the Unclaimed Property, Business and Personal Income Tax, Field Audit, Hearings and Appeals and Compliance Programs units.

In 2013, Lynn made the move to the District of Columbia Unclaimed Property unit, bringing to the District many of the programs and initiatives she developed and initiated over her career. Since then, the District has made great strides in becoming a leader in the Unclaimed Property arena.

Lynn has served on the NAUPA Executive board and was the recipient of the NAUPA President's Award.
