

Mark McCormick

Newell Brands Inc.

Mark McCormick is the Director of State Income and Indirect Tax at Newell Brands Inc. Newell Brands is a global consumer products company manufacturing and selling goods under well-known brands including Rubbermaid, Sunbeam, Oster, Calphalon, Sharpie, Coleman, Yankee Candle, as well as others.

Prior to joining Newell, Mark was a National Tax Partner with EY based in Atlanta. He served as the National Director of State Income Tax and Transactions Services as well as the National Structuring Leader. Mark advised clients on multi-state income and franchise tax, transactions, and indirect tax matters. With over 35 years of tax advisory experience, Mark served clients in the financial services, transportation, consumer products, software/technology, energy, and manufacturing industries. He has extensive experience in state tax planning and specifically the state tax implications of mergers, acquisitions, reorganizations, and other significant transactions.

Prior to joining EY, Mark was a Managing Director and served as the National Leader, State and Local and Indirect Tax at Alvarez & Marsal. He previously served as the Partner in Charge of the Southeast state and local tax practice at KPMG and Arthur Andersen.

Mark earned his bachelor's degree in Economics from Occidental College and his MBA from Emory University. He is a frequent speaker on state and local tax topics for COST, the Georgetown University State and Local Tax Institute, the NYU State and Local Tax Conference, the Paul J. Hartman Memorial State Tax Forum, Interstate Tax Corporation, and the Tax Executives Institute. He also serves on the Board of Trustees for the Paul J. Hartman Memorial State Tax Forum.