

Mayur Naik

Mayur Naik, CMI, has 15 years of experience in state and local tax that includes experience with Big Four accounting firms. His experience includes tax recovery, audit defense, tax process improvements, managed audits and compliance in a wide variety of industries such as energy, renewables, manufacturing, technology, airline, telecommunications and government.

Mayur is a certified member of the Institute of Professionals in Taxation, also known as a CMI; this designation recognizes professional achievement in sales and use taxation. He graduated with two Bachelor of Business Administration degrees from St. Edward's University, one in accounting and the other in international business.